A company has 750 computers that have Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) licenses for Microsoft Office Professional 2010. The company plans to update 340 computers to Office Professional Plus 2013.

You need to recommend the license agreement through which the company should purchase the licenses.

Which agreement should you recommend?

A. Open

B. Select Plus

C. Microsoft Online Subscription Agreement (MOSA)

D. Enterprise Subscription Agreement

Designed for organizations with 250 or more desktops, Enterprise Agreement allows you to standardize on your choice

Not A: With a customizable platform and price advantages for volume purchasing, The Open programs provide a simple, cost effective way for small and midsize organizations to acquire the latest Microsoft technology. Open Value is the
